Mrs. Coope gave a lecture on "The Passion Play at Oberammergau" Wednesday evening in St. Paul's parish, which was illustrated by 100 color views of original scenes and portraits of the performers who enacted the play in 1910. The speaker stated that the genuine passion play as witnessed by her at that time has never yet been produced in moving pictures. Special descriptions were given of the symbolism of colors, robes and headgear worn by the characters of the Old Testament.
